

We are concerned about having lower restrictions on telephone solicitation in Indiana. The amount of daily interruptions we face at home is currently much less than prior to adding our number to the "no solicitations" list. Telemarketing is a form of harrassment. Please continue to protect the privacy of citizens during the time they spend at home.